Our Core Values

- Integrity & Transparency
- Quality Commitment
- Customer-Centric Approach
- Sustainability & Responsibility
- Innovation & Growth

Private Labelling

Farm Fresh Food Stuff offers private labeling services, meaning they manufacture and pack food products for other brands. This allows businesses to have their own branded products without the need for direct production facilities. Farm Fresh Food Stuff handles the sourcing, packaging, and export of food commodities like rice, spices, pulses, flour, cooking oils, and tea powder, etc.

Farm Fresh has extensive experience serving leading brands across Middle Eastern countries. We have built a reputation for delivering high-quality private-labeled products, and many of our customers are well-established in the region.

Farm Fresh Food Stuff

India Global Marketing is a leading provider of high-quality, farm-fresh food products, committed to delivering the best agricultural and organic produce to global markets. With a strong network of farmers, producers, and suppliers, we ensure that our foodstuff meets international quality standards, offering freshness, nutrition, and sustainability.

At India Global Marketing, we believe in bridging the gap between Indian farmers and global buyers, ensuring a reliable supply chain that maintains the integrity of farm-fresh food. Our mission is to promote the richness of Indian agriculture while delivering superior-quality food products to customers worldwide.

Our Products

Palakkadan Matta Rice

Palakkadan Matta Rice, also known as Kerala Red Rice or Rosematta Rice, is a unique variety of rice grown in the Palakkad district of Kerala, India. It is known for its distinctive red color, coarse texture, and rich, earthy flavor. This rice is widely used in South Indian cuisine, particularly in Kerala, and is a staple for many traditional dishes.

Basmathi Rice

Basmati Rice is a premium variety of long-grain rice, famous for its distinct aroma, fluffy texture, and delicate flavor. It is primarily grown in the foothills of the Himalayas, covering regions of India and Pakistan. Basmati is often used in biryanis, pulao, and other gourmet rice dishes due to its non-sticky, separate grains after cooking.

Jeerakasala Rice

Jeerakasala Rice, also known as Kaima Rice, is a premium short-grain variety known for its rich aroma, delicate texture, and unique flavor. It is widely used in traditional biryanis and festive rice dishes due to its distinct characteristics.

Rice Powder

Rice Powder, also known as Rice Flour, is a finely ground powder made from rice grains. It is widely used in cooking and baking due to its light texture, neutral taste, and gluten-free properties.

Coconut Oil

Coconut Oil is a natural oil extracted from the kernel or meat of mature coconuts. It is widely used in cooking, skincare, haircare, and medicinal applications due to its rich nutritional profile and unique health benefits.

Jaggery

Jaggery is an unrefined natural sweetener made from sugarcane juice or palm sap. Unlike refined sugar, it retains essential nutrients, making it a healthier alternative for sweetening foods and beverages.

Tea Powder

Tea Powder is made from dried and processed tea leaves, ground into fine or coarse granules. It is widely used to prepare strong, flavorful tea and comes in different varieties, each offering a distinct taste and aroma.

Roasted Rava

Roasted Rava, also known as roasted semolina, is pre-toasted coarse wheat flour made from durum wheat. It is a versatile ingredient used in Indian and international cuisines for both sweet and savory dishes.

Curry Powders

Curry Powder is a fragrant blend of ground spices used to enhance the taste, color, and aroma of various dishes. It is a key ingredient in many cuisines, especially in Indian, Asian, and Middle Eastern cooking. Different types of curry powders are available, each with a unique flavor profile.

Spices

Spices are aromatic plant-based ingredients used to enhance the taste, aroma, and color of food. They are widely used in cooking, traditional medicine, and preservation. Each spice has its unique flavor profile, ranging from sweet and mild to hot and pungent.
